

Question:

My add-on has disconnected, and now I can't use SAP Business One properly. What should I do?

Answer:

The most common and often effective first step is to restart the server where SAP Business One is hosted. However, a more detailed approach can resolve the issue faster and with less disruption.